

[1] 'There is no woman slicing an onion.'

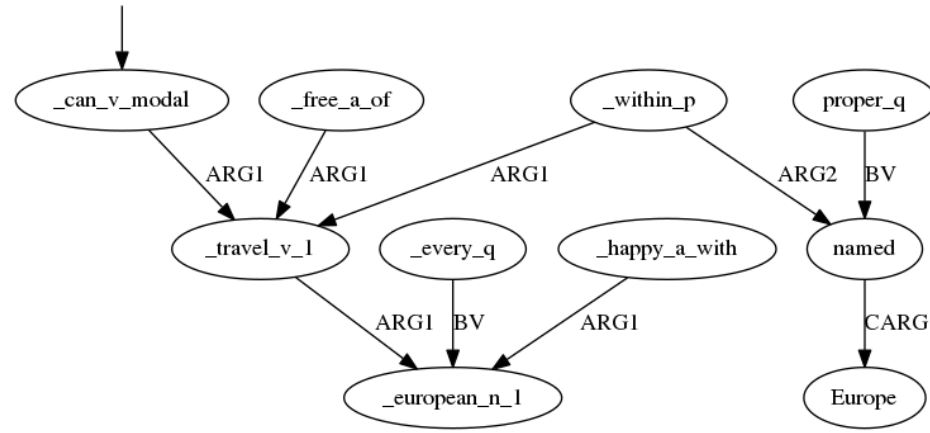

[2] 'A woman is slicing an onion.'

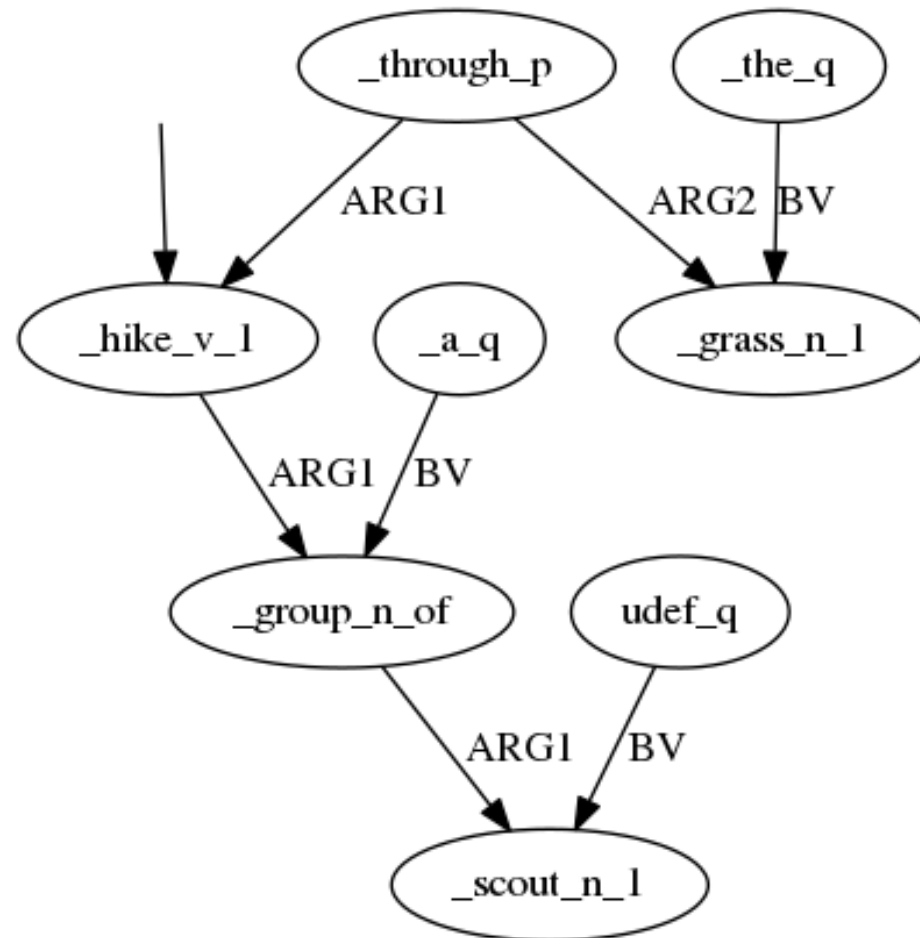

[3] 'Every European can travel freely within Europe'

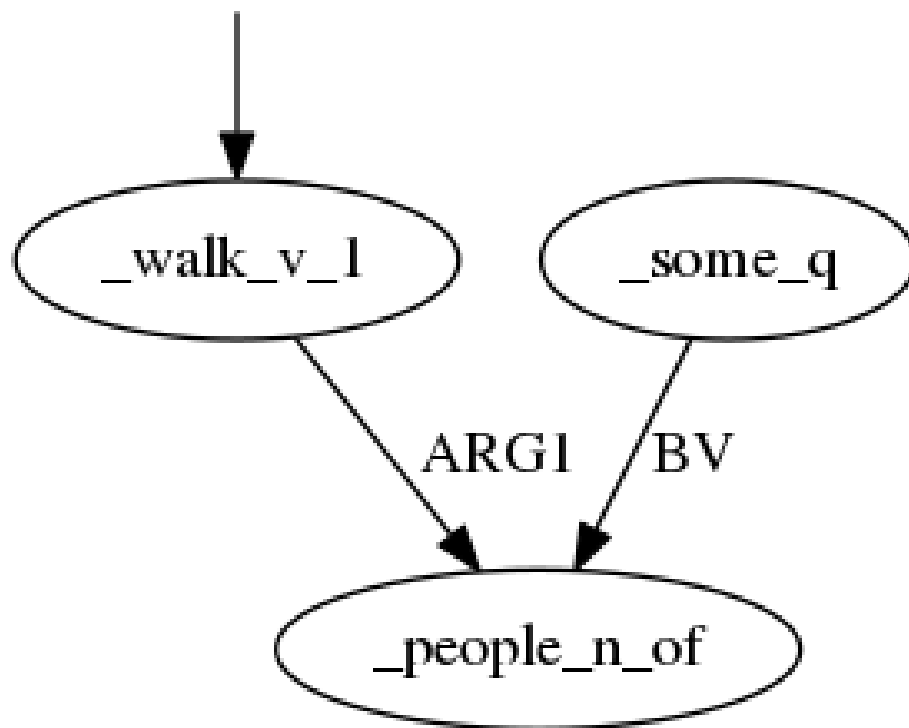

[4] 'Every European can travel freely.'

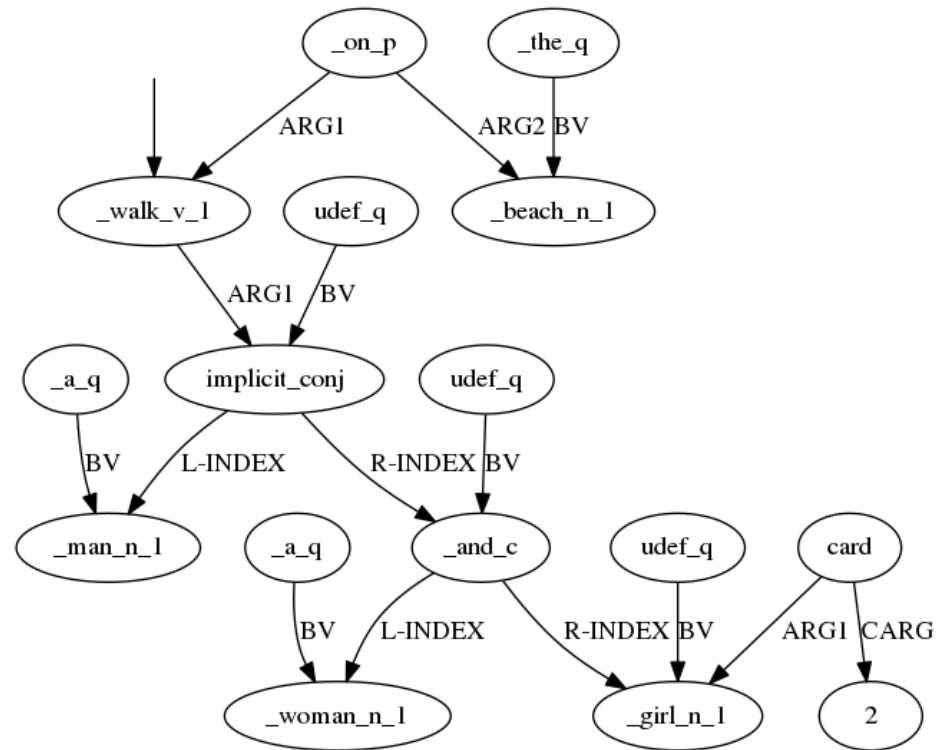

[5] 'Every happy European can travel freely within Europe.'

[6] 'A group of scouts are hiking through the grass.'

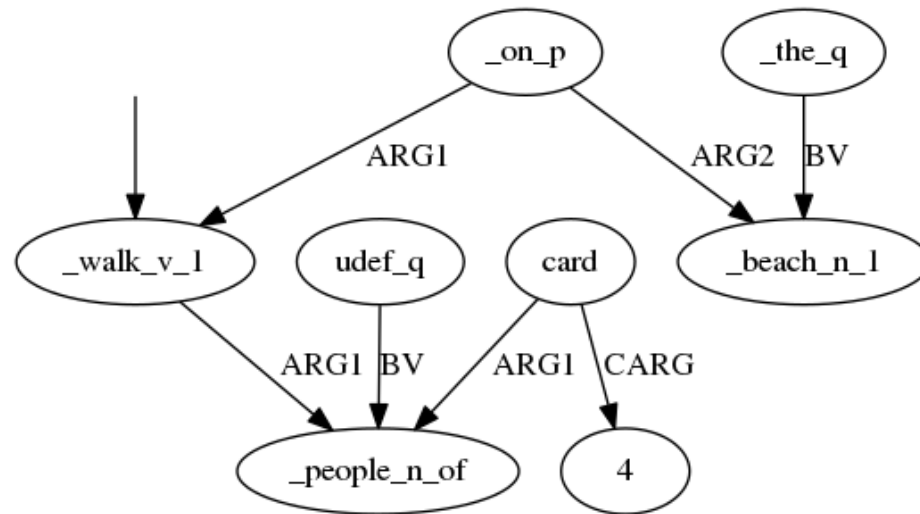

[7] 'Some people are walking.'

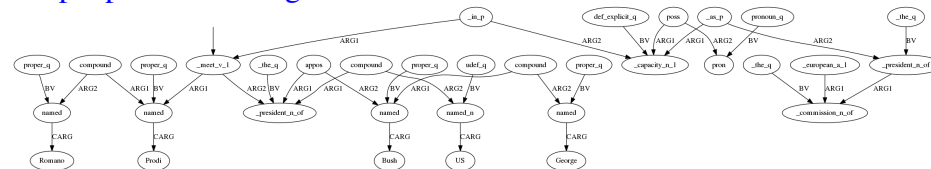

[8] 'A man, a woman and two girls are walking on the beach.'

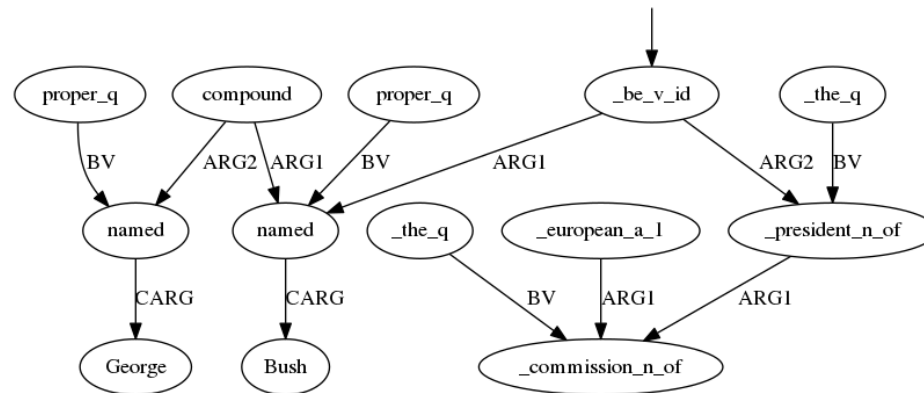

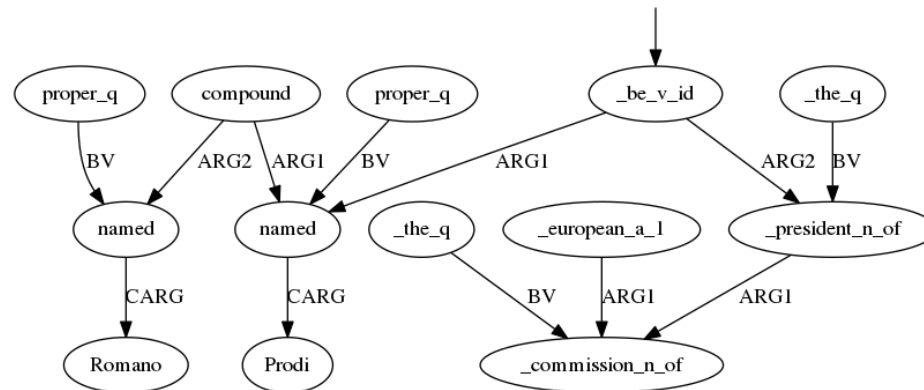

[9] 'Four people are walking on the beach.'

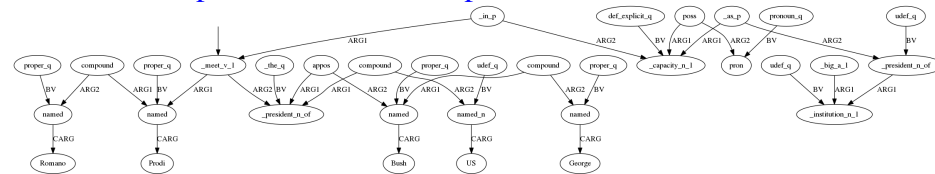

[10] 'Romano Prodi will meet the US President George Bush in his capacity as the president of the European commission.'

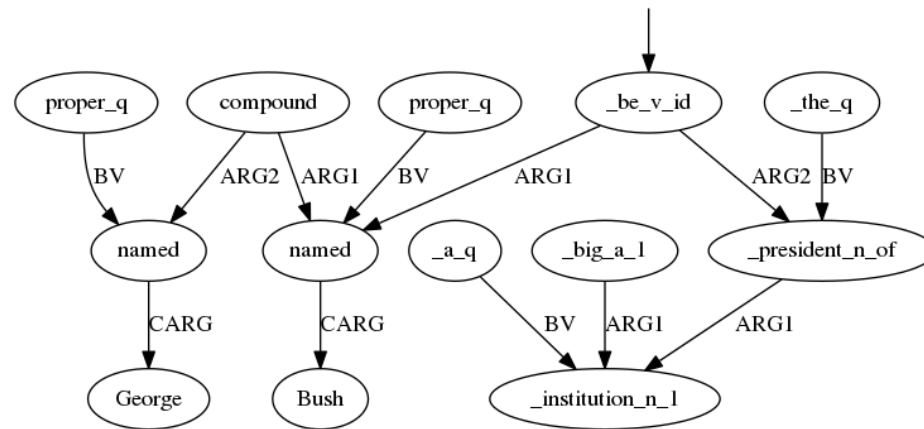

[11] 'George Bush is the president of the European commission.'

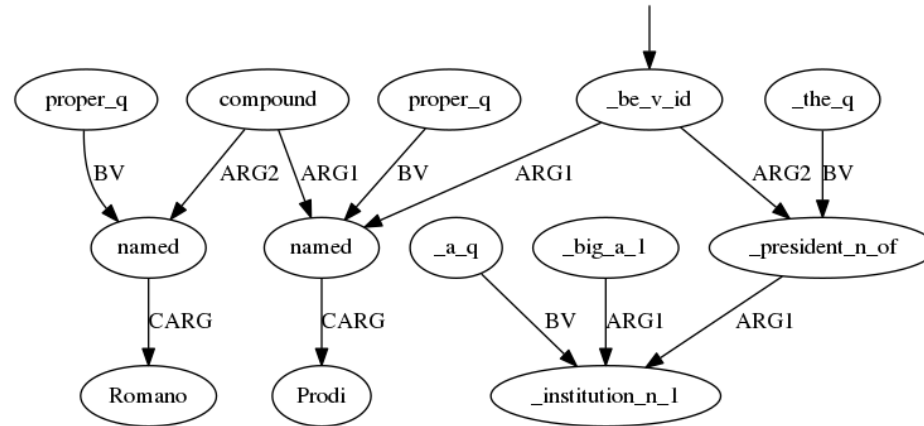

[12] 'Romano Prodi is the president of the European commission.'

[13] 'Romano Prodi will meet the US President George Bush in their capacities as presidents of big institutions.'

[14] 'George Bush is the president of a big institution.'

[15] 'Romano Prodi is the president of a big institution.'